Sultans of Swing

The Sultans play a wide variety of American popular music, 1900-1961, with unrelenting rhythm, high spirits, good taste and great pleasure in connecting with their audience. Their mix of Big Band swing, swing jazz, society two-beat and ballroom creates a unique sound that's both imminently danceable and great for listening.

June 12

Deanna Bogart Band

Blending 1930s boogie piano blues with the contemporary blues of New Orleans, Chicago and Memphis, Deanna Bogart is a high-energy, piano-pounding performer. Joining Bogart in the band are Eric Scott on bass, Mike Aubin on drums and Kajan Kelley on guitar.

June 19

Signorello

With swinging times and swing music back in vogue, Signorello and his band prove anew that it's cool to be cool.

June 26

Seldom Scene

One of the premier bluegrass bands in America today, Seldom Scene presents the best of contemporary bluegrass highlighted by exquisite vocal harmonies.

July 3

Danielle Westphal & Company

Danielle Westphal performs a delightful variety of songs from the likes of Berlin, Gershwin and Cole Porter to romantic ballads and swinging jazz. Fans describe her voice as "pure, rich, melodious and entertaining."

July 10

Solazo

The real thing! Solazo mixes three-part harmonies, passionate percussion and hot and soulful Afro-Cuban rhythms to produce a brand of contemporary Latin music that's fresh and unique.

July 17

The Continentals

An evening of polkas and waltzes from German, Polish, Slovenian and Czech traditions served with contagious enthusiasm.

July 24

Klezcentricity

Klezcentricity presents an evening of wild and authentic Yiddish-American Music! Their sound has been described by Stereo Review as "rousing...lively...joyous...a total grasp of style...It's enough to make the listener drunk without the aid of a single glass of wine."

July 31

Korean Dance and Music

Korean Dance and Music captures 5,000 years of Korean history and culture through dance and music and blends those sounds and movements in the melting pot of American performing arts.

August 7

Charivari

Charivari gives Cajun music an exciting new sound, rooted in tradition while exploring cultural diversity. An evening with Charivari is a musical surprise party featuring waltzes, two-steps, fiddle tunes and Creole songs.

August 14

Trinidad & Tobago Steel Band

Trinidad and Tobago Steel Band is an institution in the Washington DC area. One of the region's first steel bands still performing and delighting audiences, the group is famed for unique musical interpretation and exciting sound that give listeners a virtual trip to the islands.

August 21

Rhodes Tavern Troubadours

A post-pop explosion ready to rock your world with signature roots-rockin', foot-stompin', power-poppin' tunes from their CD "On The Red Line." Winners of the 2001 "WAMMIE" awards for "Best New Group" and "Best Rock/Pop Group" from the Washington Area Music Association.

August 28

Bonnie Rideout

Bonnie Rideout is one of the finest Scottish fiddlers of our time. From Scotland's Edinburgh International Festival to America's Kennedy Center, she brings the evocative music of the Highlands to her stage performances.
